

Dr. Ringelberg

Department: History & Geography

Email: kringelberg@elon.edu Office: 104 Powell House

Description of faculty member's current research/creative interests:

If you're interested in the intersections of visual culture (especially but not only modern & contemporary art, architecture, museums, monuments) and identity (race/class/gender/sexuality/place of origin) considered through historical, theoretical, and social justice lenses, you might want to work with me. Ditto modern and contemporary Japan, France, and the U.S.

Description of faculty member's current research/creative needs:

Students who work with me do engage in archival work and data collection, but mostly it's about reading, writing, and thinking.

Currently looking for a student to apply and work in these programs:

Any program/opportunity

I can mentor a student enrolled in 498/499 hours during these semesters:

"I'm open to a variety of options depending on what the student is interested in and how it meshes with my own goals."

The ideal student would have the following qualifications:

I individualize these depending on the project and student.

Students interested in working with me should...

email me to set up a meeting