STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Register for the Correct Classes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Classes outside of your major cannot be certified • Classes (with passing grade) cannot be certified if repeated • Audited classes cannot be certified
Reporting Enrollment	Chapter 30, 35, and 1606 are required to report enrollment status on the last calendar day of each month at https://www.gibill.va.gov/wave/vba/ or 1-877-823-2378.
Enrollment Status	Enrollment status is based on the number of enrolled hours. You must notify your SCO if your credit hours change (add/drop) during the semester.
Satisfactory Academic Progress	You must meet the academic progress guidelines spelled out in the academic catalog. If you fall into Academic Suspension, your VA benefits will be terminated.
Changing Majors	You must notify your SCO if you change your major. Failure to do so could delay benefits. Always complete form 22-1990 for a change in major.
Reporting Changes	Students are required to report address and direct deposit changes to VA via WAVE https://www.gibill.va.gov/wave/vba/ or 1-877-823-2378. Address changes should also be reported to the Registrar’s Office.
Graduation	Students are required to notify their SCO at the beginning of the semester they intend to graduate. Students may “round out” their final term and take a class outside their major if needed. This is the only time rounding can be certified.
