Perpetrator of Crime at Eli College Pays Extremist Penalty As Victim of Mob Law; Law Abiding Citizens of Alma desist in their Age of Despair of Honest Men

Graham, Aug. 25—White, Judge Oliver C., Allen, of Kinston, washed off this week after the murder of his 15-year-old daughter, which occurred in the course of an attempt to rescue the girl from the hands of a negro. A negro was hired to work for the family, and the negro had been staying in the house since last Monday. The negro had been working in the yard and had been habitually disobedient. The negro had been seen in the neighborhood of the house and had been heard talking to the negro girl. The negro had been charged with making advances to the negro girl.

The negro, according to the negro, had been seen in the neighborhood of the house and had been heard talking to the negro girl. The negro had been charged with making advances to the negro girl.

The negro, according to the negro, had been seen in the neighborhood of the house and had been heard talking to the negro girl. The negro had been charged with making advances to the negro girl.

The negro, according to the negro, had been seen in the neighborhood of the house and had been heard talking to the negro girl. The negro had been charged with making advances to the negro girl.

The negro, according to the negro, had been seen in the neighborhood of the house and had been heard talking to the negro girl. The negro had been charged with making advances to the negro girl.