

For your convenience, you may request that a hold be placed on available or checked-out items through the library catalog. Requests on available items will be pulled from the stacks after 10am the following day or on Monday if the hold is placed on Friday or Saturday. This service will not be available when the library is closed for campus holidays, and service may be limited during scheduled academic breaks.

To place a hold on an item, select the “Request” button associated with the title you want.

Or, select your title, and then select the “Request” button.

Enter your name and Phoenix ID number. Select the location where you wish to pick up your item.
NOTE: Office Delivery is only available to Faculty and Staff. Items will either be hand delivered if the library has available staff, or items will be shipped via campus mail in a bright purple cloth bag.
